FOREWORD.

The work of compiling data for a genealogy of a branch of the BOND family was begun in the year 1884 and has been pursued at intervals during twenty-five years. It has required no small amount of patience and perseverance to secure the historical facts herein narrated. No attempt has been made to present anything like "write-up" of any individual; on the contrary the biographies are very brief, this being necessary, otherwise the volume might become too large to suit our purpose. A number of abbreviations are used in the work, the list of which should be learned by the reader. The place of birth is not always given, but frequently can be ascertained by reference to the parents and their place of residence.

After the name heading each family, appears, in parenthesis, the name of his or her ancestors of each generation running back to the immigrant JOSEPH BOND, or JOHN BOND, as the case may be. Both being sons of BENJAMIN and ANN (PARADISE) BOND.

A name in parenthesis thus "Anna (HUFF) Bond" denotes that her maiden name was Huff. Each name is given a number, in light type where the birth is noted; when this number is carried forward to where the marriage of the person named is recorded the number is here placed in black type, so they can be readily found. The light and black numbers will be found throughout the work, including the index.

The aim has been to record the facts as a matter of history of our kindred. That errors will be found is to be expected and cannot be avoided; for these we ask the indulgence of the reader.

Now, dear reader, if you are a member of this numerous Bond family or in any way interested therein, buy a copy of this history and familiarize yourself with its contents, and receive much benefit and pleasure therefrom.

CHAPTER I.

THE ANCESTORS OF JOSEPH BOND.

The branch of the Bond family in America whose history the writer has undertaken to briefly narrate is of English origin. The English stock coming originally from Saxony to England about the time of William the Conqueror.

A generation ago almost any one of the older members of the family could readily trace their ancestors to Joseph Bond, who, they said, came from England and married Martha Rogers, who also came on the same ship.

At the present time there are very few of the Bonds who can trace their lineage even this far, and many cannot even name their great-grandparents with any certainty.

The research that I have made to learn the earlier history of these people has not been as fruitful as I could wish, yet the labor has been crowned with a measure of success, and I submit the results with the hope that there may be, in this and future generations, a few readers who will derive some satisfaction from its perusal.

I quote from "Wiltshire Notes and Queries," a quarterly magazine devoted to historical and genealogical matters, in which abstracts of Friends' records in Wiltshire, England, have been published:

"Benjamin Bond, son of Edward Bond, of Bewley, Laycock parish, and Ann Paradise, of Slaughterford, were married 2 mo. 20, 1686, at Slaughterford."

"Edward Bond, of Calne, druggist maker, son of Benjamin Bond, of Bidston, was married 4 mo. 29, 1720, to Mary Smith, at Chippenham."

From another copy of the magazine:

"John Bond, son of Benjamin and Ann Bond, of Bidiston, was born 2 mo. 21, 1701."

"Joseph Bond, son of Benjamin and Ann Bond, of Devizes, Wilts, born 8 mo. 6, 1704."

From the Chester Monthly Meeting Records, of Chester, Pennsylvania, 10 mo. 25, 1721:

"John Bond produced a certificate from Lavington Monthly Meeting in the county of Wilts in Great Britain:

" 'From our Monthly Meeting of the South West Division (commonly called Lavington Monthly Meeting), in the County of Wilts, South Britain, to ffriends in Pensilvania:

" 'Dear ffriends & Brethren. These are to certifie you that our friend John Bond who has an intention to settle a mong you has faithfully served his apprenticeship within the verge of this meeting and has behaved himself soberly and religiously and therefore we tenderly recommend him to you and we also find nothing but Clearness respecting marriage. With Salutation of Dear Love we rest your friends and Brethren.

" 'Signed in behalf of said Monthly Meeting this 10th of 1st mo., 1720.

" 'HENRY SANGER,	EDWARD GYE,
" 'THOMAS KING,	JOHN GYE,
" 'JOHN MOORE,	SAMUEL RUTTY,
" 'JOHN CALLAWAY.' "

A LETTER WRITTEN BY BENJAMIN BOND.

"Unto ffriends in Pensilvania or Elsewhere in America, unto whose hand this may come. Greeting:

"Whereas my son John Bond has an Intention to settle amongst you, These may Certifie that I do give my consent to it and hope he will adhear to the advice of honest friends where ever his Lott may be Cast, and Being well sattisfied that he is Clear from any Engagement with woman on the account of marriage I do Allow him to take a wife Amongst you when he shall see meet without my ffatherly approbation; So with the Salutation of Endeared Love I Remain your well wishing ffriend and Brother in the unchangeable Truth.

"BENJA. BOND.

"Bidestone near Chippenham, County Wilts, the 13th of the first mo., 1720-21."

John Bond received a certificate from Chester Monthly Meeting 9 mo. 26, 1722, to Abington Monthly Meeting, Philadelphia County.

From minutes of Abington Monthly Meeting:

11 mo. 28, 1722: "John Bond produced a certificate from Chester Monthly Meeting."

12 mo. 22, 1724: "John Bond and Sarah Cadwalader declared the second time their intention of marriage."

1st mo. 29, 1725: "The marriage was reported orderly."

8th mo. 21, 1731: "A certificate was granted to John Bond in order to Visit his friends in Old England."

6 mo. 28, 1732: "John Bond produced a certificate from Chippenham Mo. Mg. in Wiltshire in Old England, which was Read & Rec'd."

CHAPTER II.

JOSEPH BOND.

1. JOSEPH BOND, son of Benjamin and Ann Bond, of Devizes, Wilts (England), was born 8 mo. 6, 1704. Our knowledge of his early history is very meager indeed. In the preceding chapter it is shown that his father was a Quaker or Friend and so was his brothers, John and Edward, yet I find no evidence among the Friends' records of Pennsylvania or North Carolina that Joseph had a membership in that religious society. The date of his coming to America has not been learned, although there is a tradition that he came in 1735. There is no doubt about his coming that early. He arrived at Philadelphia and was bound or put under contract to someone to labor for his passage to this country. After gaining his liberty he and Martha Rogers were married, though I have not found any proof of this marriage in any of the records in Philadelphia or among Friends. The lack of his name being mentioned in any of the Friends' records makes it very evident that he had lost his membership, if he ever had one, before coming to America. After his marriage he lived in Bucks County, Pa., for some years. Joshua Bond, late of Jay County, Ind., who was a grandson of Joseph, wrote under date of 12th day of the 1st mo. 1862, a biographical sketch of himself. This manuscript gives a ray of light on the present subject. I here quote from him:

"My granfather Bond name was Joseph and granmothers name Martha Rogers before she was married. The both came from inland in one ship when young and after working to pay their passage they married. Granmother was thought to be a kinswoman of John Rogers the Marter."

Joshua was 81 years old when he wrote the above, which I have tried to quote verbatim et literatim.

In a manuscript left by Edward Bond Sr., son of Joseph, in which he is writing about the last sickness and decease of his sister, Ruth Walton, he mentions his father thus:

"She was the Daughter of Joseph Bond and Martha his wife who lived in the early part of their time in Bucks County in or near richland township pennsylvania who afterward moved to new garden North Carolina & there deceast, and was Buried at new garden, Guilford county."

There is evidence that he moved from Bucks County, Penn., to North Carolina when his son Edward was between ten and eleven years old. This would fix the date at 1750 or 1751. This was at a time when a great many of the Friends or Quakers were moving from Pennsylvania, Maryland, Massachusetts and Virginia and settling in North Carolina. New Garden Meeting was established in 1751, as was also that of Cane Creek in Alamance County. New Garden Meeting was probably held in some of their dwellings for a year or two. It was about 1752 that Richard Williams with his wife, Prudence Beals, and two children settled at New Garden, and it was Williams that gave the site for the meeting house.

The date of his decease or that of his wife has not been ascertained. Their son John, who was probably the youngest child, was born in May, 1755, and from the evidence at hand I believe neither he nor his wife lived long after this date. I visited the cemetery at New Garden, now Guilford College, in the year 1908, and endeavored to locate their graves. I was shown the plot of ground where the earliest graves were located, but found no marks whereby I could establish which grave contained their remains. So we here state briefly, or rather restate, that Joseph Bond was grandson of Edward Bond, of England, and son of Benjamin Bond and wife, Ann Paradise, of Wiltshire, England. He was born in England, emigrated to America—Pennsylvania—about 1735, married Martha Rogers, lived in Bucks County, Penn., moved to Roan, now Guilford Co., N. C., about 1751, died before 1760. Buried at New Garden, now Guilford College.

The history of each of the above children, except that of Ann, will be found in the succeeding pages.

CHAPTER III.

THIRD GENERATION.

2. EDWARD BOND (son and probably oldest child of Joseph and Martha Bond) was born in Bucks Co., Penn., Sept. 26, 1740; moved with his parents to North Carolina 1750 or 1751, where they settled near New Garden, now Guilford College. My knowledge of his history has been almost altogether obtained from the following sources and records, viz: The records of the Friends kept by their monthly meeting; deed records; from the writings of his friends, and his own manuscripts. I will quote from some of these various records so the reader can be in possession of many facts connected with his history.

Feb. 28, 1758. Minutes of New Garden Monthly Meeting: "Edward Bond requests to come under the care of Friends, we therefore appoint Thomas Thornburg and Nathan Dicks to inquire into his conversation and else may (be) needful and make report at our next meeting." From the records of March: "The Friends appointed at our last meeting to inquire concerning Edward Bond make report; they find nothing to obstruct, his request is therefore granted."

January 27th, 1759, he makes request to be joined as a member of said meeting and April 28, 1759, this request is granted.

In 1763 he desired the concurrence of the meeting to travel in company with William Hunt and Zachariah Dicks, upon a religious visit to friends in South Carolina, which the meeting approved, and the clerk was requested to give him a copy of the minutes on behalf of the meeting.

MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE.

"Whereas Edward Bond of New Garden in Roan County, North Carolina, son of Joseph Bond, dec'd, and Ann Mills, daughter of John Mills of the same place, having declared their intention of marriage with each other before several monthly meetings of the people called Quakers, held at New Garden in the county aforesaid, and nothing appearing to obstruct, were left to their liberty to accomplish their marriage according to good order, the which they did on the 16th day of the 8th mo. 1764, in the 'presents' of many witnesses 12 of whose names are herein 'writed' to-wit:"

Deep River meeting was established in 1760 and it is probable that he became a member of that particular meeting. He bought of Anthony Hoggatt in 1774, 100 acres of land for the sum of thirty and five pounds current and lawful money. This land was on the long branch, the east side of the east fork of Deep River, Guilford County, N. C.

In 1767 he was appointed overseer of Deep River Meeting. Deep River Monthly Meeting was set off from New Garden Aug. 8, 1778. From this date on his name is often used on committees of Deep River Monthly Meeting of which he was a member from this date until his removal to Indiana Territory in the year 1810.

In the year 1793 he went on an extended visit among Friends and kindred and also visiting Friends' meetings in Virginia and Pennsylvania, traveling on horseback, being gone from home more than four months. Among his manuscripts is a detailed account of this trip; a diary of each day's travel or visit. Starting August 15, 1793, he reached home December 24th of the same year. On the third day of his travel he reached the home of his cousin Edward Bond in Bedford County, Va. The following day being the first day of the week (Sunday), he attended Goose Creek Meeting and remained here until second day (Monday). He was accompanied on this trip as far as Yorktown, Pa., by John Wickersham, who was also on a like visit to friends in Pennsylvania. He says: "Second day morning we set out again on our journey. Cousin Edward Bond went with us to his daughter's, Mary McFarson (McPherson) and Cousin Alin Bond, John Bond's son Alin, also went and set us in the road." This Allen Bond was eldest son of John and Margaret (Allen) Bond. John was the first cousin, being the son of his uncle John.

He mentions passing through Lynchburg; crossing the James River; crossing the mountains at Rockfish Gap; taking a wrong road and passing through Stantown (Staunton), and on the 23d they arrived at "Margaret Bond's at 'Shanadore' (Shenandoah) River." He writes: "She being my cousin John Bond's widow we staid there with her and her children, who were nearly grown up, til the next day, then we went to her brother Joseph Alin's—and from there to his son Joseph Alin's, who was married to cousin Edward's (Bond) oldest daughter Susannah."

"From there we went to cousin Isaac Bond's and staid all night. Isaac Bond was married to his second wife. He hath two daughters by his first wife. One of them lives with him and the other lives near Middle Town in Bucks County in Pennsylvania, with Jesse Willson, who's wife is a relation of her's." Sunday, the 25th of August, he mentions about it being the first day of the week, he went with his relations and other Friends to meeting called Smith Creek Meeting. He says he "was very much stript and very poor in this meeting and had a sick afternoon at Jackson Alin's, who was married to cousin Edward Bond's daughter Sarah."

From here they went to Opecon (Opequon) and on through Winchester, Va., crossed the Potomac and the mountains and on the 30th arrived at Jonathan Jessop's in Yorktown, Pa. Quoting again from his record:

"Here we met with our friend Ann Jesop, who had been living with her son Jonathan some months, but was now making ready to go back to New Garden to her own home."

"I had between 40 & 50 l (pounds) in money that E. Macy sent by me to Jonathan, which I carried safe and give to him and took a receipt."

"31st. John and I parted at this town. He went up towards Warrington and I went down to my brother Benjamin Bond's in fauntownship (Fawn township) joining to Maryland 25 miles, where I found him and his family in midling good health, and very glad to see me. This is a poor barron and hilly part of the country. I thought it some like Thomas Creek."

"The next day (1st of 9 mo.) being first day of the week I went with them to meeting which was small and I thought poor. I staid at my brother's about ten days and plowed some. I seemed to have a good deal of satisfaction for the most part since I left home and felt great contentment such I thought I had never known before. Yet I was not without exercise particularly about going to meeting for fear something should appear for me to speak in the meeting which I had almost set a resolution against complying with while I was from home."

While here at his brother's he first heard of the "plague" which was then epidemic in Philadelphia. It continued for many weeks and hindered him and a great many of the Friends from attending the yearly meeting which was held in that city the latter part of September. The disease was very fatal and but few people ventured into the city at that time.

He left his brother's September 10th and during the next thirty days he visited friends and relatives in the counties of Chester, Delaware, Montgomery and Bucks. He attended meeting every First day and often went to mid-week meeting. He frequently makes mention of the Philadelphia sickness; was near Philadelphia but did not enter the city. He tells of a number of people who went to the city, some of whom took sick and died there, others returning to the country died at home. It was reported that a hundred had died in one day of the disease.

He visited his cousin Benjamin Bond and Benjamin's two sons, Abraham and Amos, and his daughter, the wife of Adam Barton. He says Abraham lived in Delaware County near Chester. He also visited Elizabeth, the widow of his cousin Abraham Bond, deceased. She had three children, John and Levi and daughter Mary. Says he did not get to see her or John, as John was gone to Nova Scotia. Levi and Hannah, his wife, live in Newtown, Bucks County. Their children, Abraham, Robert, Thomas, Elizabeth and Jane. He arrived back to his brother Benjamin's Oct. 10th and from there went with some friends to the yearly meeting at Baltimore and returned again to his brother's.

Oct. 23, he left his brother Benjamin Bond's in York County to visit his sister, who then lived in the western part of the State in Washington County. There being several settlements of Friends in Fayette and Washington Counties. He attended numerous meetings and visited families all over that part of the State and as far west as Wheeling, Va. It was the 9th of December when he parted with his sister and brother-in-law, Benjamin and Ruth Walton, and started on his journey homeward. Benjamin Townsend and several other Friends accompanied him on his homeward journey as far as Frederick County, Va., where they all attended Hopewell Quarterly Meeting. Here he met some of his cousins from Smith Creek who kept him company to his cousin Margaret Bond's. From here he reached home in a little more than five days, arriving on Christmas eve, Dec. 24, 1793, and found his wife and children well and glad to see him.

In the year 1809 he went on a journey, traveling on horseback to Indiana Territory, to visit his sons Jesse and William, who had moved there two years previous. He was accompanied on this trip by Adam Davis. He left an extensive written account of this trip in which he describes the daily occurrences. Tells with whom they stopped each night, the cost if any and other details. They traveled into Greyson County, Va., crossed New River and through Abington, Va., which town he "supposes has two hundred houses;" into Tennessee over Clynch mountain and by way of Richmond, Ky., to Cincinnati. There is enough matter in his account of this trip to fill ten large pages. He left home July 17, 1809, and was twenty days in reaching the home of his son Jesse, who lived near Richmond where Earlham College now is.

During his stay he attended quarterly meeting at Waynesville, Ohio. He says the house was so full he did not get in the first day he was there. He visited many meetings and families and also viewed the unsettled parts of the country west and north of his son Jesse's. He returned home by the same route, being gone from home nine or ten weeks.

The following year he and his son Joseph and their families moved to Indiana Territory and settled on a farm on the middle fork of White Water some six miles N. N. E. of Richmond. Here he cleared the land and made a farm. The ground for Goshen Meeting house and the graveyard was donated by him for the purpose for which it is still used. We find among his papers the following account of his coming to the territory and also of the coming of some of his children:

"We set out on our journey from No. Carolina to go to White Water in the Indiana Territory the 18th of the 9th mo. 1810, and came there on the 27th of the 10th mo. 1810. Our son Joseph and his wife came with us. Joshua Bond with his family came to us on the 5th day of the 11th mo. 1811, from 'Greyson' County Virginia. Edward Bond 'Juner' came the same time to his brother Jesse and hath since settled on the 'purchase' with his family. Abram Bunker came to us the 1st of 3rd mo. 1815 with his wife and five children."

"Daniel North & wife from Surry County N. Carolina set on his journey the 6th of 11th mo. 1819 and got here to White Water, Wayne County, Indiana, the 29th of 12th mo. 1819."

As previously noted he was married on August 16, 1764, to Ann Mills, of Guilford County, N. C. She was the daughter of John and Sarah (Beales) Mills, John Mills being the son of a John Mills, who emigrated from England to Philadelphia and afterwards settled on Opequon Creek, near Winchester, Va. Sarah Beales was born May 29, 1713, and was the daughter of John and Sarah (Bowater) Beales. This later John Beales being the son of John and Mary (Clayton) Beales (sometimes spelled Beals-Bales). Sarah Bowater was the daughter of Thomas and Sarah Bowater nee Edge, who came from England. Mary Clayton was the daughter of William and Prudence Clayton. These ancestors of Ann Bond nee Mills were all of them so far as known Quakers. Ann was born in 5th mo. (May) 1745 O. S. in Frederick County, Va., moving with her parents to North Carolina about 1751 or 1752. She died in Wayne County, Indiana, April 3, 1826, her husband Edward Bond having passed away nearly five years prior to her decease. He having died May 6, 1821. Interment was made in the graveyard which he had donated and laid out on his farm for the purpose of burial and for a meeting house, called Goshen, near Middleborough, Wayne County, Indiana.

The children of Edward, and Ann (Mills) Bond:

9. I. Benjamin, b. July 4, 1765.

10. II. Keziah, b. June 29, 1767; d. s. p.
11. III. John, b. June 15, 1769.
12. IV. William, b. Nov. 16, 1771.
13. V. Edward, b. Jan. 24, 1774.
14. VI. Anna, b. Sept. 19, 1776.
15. VII. Jesse, b. March 24, 1779.
16. VIII. Joshua, b. Nov. 28, 1781.
17. IX. Joseph, b. Feb. 20, 1785.

With one exception all of these reared families. Keziah married Daniel North and moved in 1819 to Indiana. She died about 1847, leaving no issue.

3. BENJAMIN BOND, son of Joseph and Martha (Rogers) Bond, was born in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, in the year 1742. It is probable that he moved with his parents to North Carolina and that after their decease he and his sister Ruth went back to Pennsylvania where they found homes among friends. From the Abington (Penn.) Monthly Meeting records of Friends we extract the following: "4th mo. 24th, 1769. Benjamin Bond requests to be received into membership and Horsham meeting gives a good account of him." 6 mo. 26, 1769, he is admitted into membership. 11 mo. 26, 1770 "Horsham Meeting requests a certificate for Benjamin Bond who inclines to take a 'voige' to North Carolina." 12 mo. 31, 1770 a certificate signed for him to New Garden, North Carolina. 9th mo. 30, 1771 he returns the certificate endorsed by New Garden, N. Carolina, Meeting.

This visit to his brothers and friends was taken before his marriage. The certificate in due time was received by New Garden, N. C., Monthly Meeting, and when he desired its return to him the meeting appointed William Stanley to indorse and sign it on behalf of the meeting.

From the records of Abington Mo. Mtg. of Friends we obtain the following data:

"4th mo. 17th, 1778. Benjamin Bond, of the township of Horsham in the County of Philadelphia, son of Joseph Bond of North Carolina, deceased, and Mary Walton, daughter of Thomas Walton, of the Mannor of Moorland, in the county and province aforesaid, were married at Horsham Meeting. Thomas and Mary Walton sign as her parents. One Edward and Susannah Bond also witnesses."

Some time after this they settled in Fawn Township, York

County, of the same State, where they lived till his decease in August, 1826. At this time several of the children were married. The widow and children moved to Indiana. She died in Wayne County, Indiana, Aug. 7, 1845. Children:

18. I. Martha Bond, b. abt. 1779; d. Feb. 25, 1854; did not marry.

19. II. Silas, b. July 15, 1783.

20. III. Elizabeth (afterwards Strawbridge).

21. IV. Ruth (afterwards Vore), b. Dec. 15, 1787.

22. V. Eli, b. Jan. 26, 1790.

4. RUTH BOND, daughter of Joseph and Martha (Rogers) Bond, was born in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, about 1744-5. She married (date not known) Benjamin Walton, a Friend or Quaker. They lived some years in Eastern Pennsylvania, Bucks County, but later, prior to 1793, moved to a new settlement of Friends in Washington County of the same State. She died June 2, 1805, in the 61st year of her age. The date of his decease and birth is wanting. The Waltons were a numerous and prominent people in Pennsylvania. Residence, Pennsylvania. The children of Benjamin and Ruth (Bond) Walton moved from Pennsylvania to Ohio and Indiana. Children:

23. I. Joseph Walton, b. ———; n. f. k.

24. II. Mary Walton (Townsend).

25. III. Abraham Walton, b. 1761.

26. IV. David Walton, did not marry.

27. V. Martha Walton; married Joseph John; n. f. k.

28. VI. Gabriel Walton, b. Nov. 17, 1777.

29. VII. Bathsheba Walton, married John Dinza; n. f. k.

30. VIII. Amos Walton.

31. IX. John Walton.

The further history of Gabriel and Abraham Walton will be found in this book; of the others nothing further is known. There is a tradition that Benjamin Walton was the son of one of the three brothers that came from England on the same ship with Joseph Bond.

5. STEPHEN BOND. Date of birth not known. That there was a Stephen Bond, son of Joseph and Martha, there is sufficient evidence. The record here produced is a copy of the one contained in the birth and marriage record of the Westfield (N. C.) Monthly Meeting of Friends. From the fact that Joseph

Bond had a son Stephen and the further fact that Samuel Bond, brother of Stephen, lived also at Westfield, I am led to believe that this Stephen is the same, and son of Joseph. It will be noticed that he has a son named for Joseph and a daughter named for Martha, besides other names for near relatives. So I am quite sure I make no mistake in placing his family in this page, although after exchanging hundreds of letters with different families of Bonds all over the country I find no positive trace of any of his descendants. His son Stephen died in childhood and whatever became of the other sons and daughters I am at a loss to know. Who he married is not known to the writer. The record gives her Christian name, "Maiden." The children:

32. I. "Ruth Bond daughter of Stephen and Maiden his wife was born ye 19th of ye 2 mo. 1773."

7. SAMUEL BOND, son of Joseph Bond and Martha his wife, was born 12 mo. 2nd, 1753; married January 11, 1775: Elizabeth Beales, born May 25, 1755, daughter of Thomas and Sarah Antrim Beales. She became an eminent minister among Friends, preaching the gospel for more than sixty years. Her father, Thomas Beales, was a noted preacher of his day; he was the son of John and Sarah (Bowater) Beales. Therefore, Elizabeth, wife of Samuel Bond, was first cousin to Ann (Mills), wife of Edward Bond. They resided in Surry County, North Carolina, where their family of 12 children were born. He died there January 29, 1812. The widow and all the children moved to Indiana. She lived to be 92 years old, passing away in Wayne County, Indiana, April 13, 1848. The following marriage certificate was copied from the records kept by New Garden Monthly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends, called Quakers:

"Whereas Samuel Bond of Surry County, North Carolina, son of Joseph Bond, deceased, & Elizabeth Beales, daughter of Thomas Beales of the same place, having declared their intention of marriage with each other before several monthly meetings of the people called Quakers held at New Garden in Guilford County, North Carolina, aforesaid, according to the good order used among them, and nothing appearing to obstruct, was left to their liberty to accomplish their marriage according to good order. Which they did ye 11th of ye 1 mo. 1775, at a meeting of said people at Toms Creek in the 'presents' of many witnesses, 12 of whose names are herein inscribed, to-wit:

8. JOHN BOND, son of Joseph and Martha, was born May 30, 1755; married January 28, 1778: Jane Beeson, daughter of Benjamin and Elizabeth Beeson, of Guilford County, North Carolina. She died January 9, 1792. They were members of Centre Monthly Meeting of Friends or Quakers, but in January 1, 1781, they moved their membership to Deep River Mo. Mtg. In June 1784 he was disowned from membership and little has been learned of his history since that date. There is, however, a tradition among his descendants that after his wife died he married Elizabeth Beeson, by whom he had one child; name and sex not known to them. There were eight children born to them before Jane's death. They (the children) retained membership in the meeting and must have moved their membership back to Centre Meeting, for in 1795 they moved their membership from Centre to New Hope Monthly Meeting, Green County, Tenn. In the minutes of New Hope Monthly Meeting of Tennessee we find recorded in 1795 where the five sons of John Bond moved their rights of membership from Centre Monthly Meeting of North Carolina to New Hope Monthly Meeting, Green County, Tenn. The sons' names: Joseph, Benjamin, Joel, Isaac and William. Their sisters' membership may also have been moved at the same time, but their record being kept in a separate book by the women and the book not being found I am unable to say what became of them. The children all being minors at that time it is reasonable to believe that John had married again and moved his family to the new settlement of Quakers in East Tennessee. A few years later two of these sons were disowned from membership and all moved away from the neighborhood, and no further mention is made of them in the minutes or records. About a hundred years after these occurrences the writer, after several years' search and inquiry, located in Kentucky, Missouri and other states the descendants of four of these sons of John Bond.

Through the courtesy of Miss Susan E. Davis, of Wayne County, Ky., I became the possessor of the original marriage certificate of John Bond and Jane Beeson, and as a matter of curiosity as well as history I herewith reproduce it as nearly as can be done:

BOND HISTORYCHAPTER IV.*FOURTH GENERATION.

Great-grandchildren of

JOSEPH BOND

Beginning with children of Benjamin, son of Edward and Ann.

Ending with children of William, son of John and Jane.

Numbering from 66 to 297.

9. BENJAMIN BOND (Edward-Joseph), born July 4, 1765; married June 12, 1799: Mary Williams, born Jan. 4, 1770, daughter of Owen and Catherine Williams of Stokes County, N. C. She died July 22, 1826; he died in Henry County, Ind., Oct. 10, 1839. He was born near Deep River, Guilford County, N. C. From the Deep River Mo. meeting records we learn that Benjamin Bond, son of Edward and Ann, married Mary Williams, daughter of Owen and Catherine Williams, at Muddy Creek Meeting in Stokes County, N. C., 18th of 6 mo., 1799. Witnesses were: Job Coggshall, Rachel Jones, Richard Jones, Mary Haisley, Jonathan Sell, Sarah Pike, William Manlove, Elizabeth Patterson, Henry Willett, Abigail Comer, Samuel Schooley, Mary Pike. He moved to Wayne County, Ind., in the year 1827, and later settled in Henry County of the same State, where he spent the remaining portion of his life.

The following sketch was written by William P. Hastings, who married a granddaughter of the subject:

"Grandfather Benjamin Bond I knew from my earliest recollection until his death. They lived less than a mile from where I was born and brought up. He lived with his son Jonathan and his daughter Tabitha; neither son nor daughter were married. Elam Bond, a son of Huldah, was bound to Jonathan, and was the remaining member of the family at the time of Benjamin's death. Benjamin had composed rhymes, generally historical of the events recorded in the Old Testament. His favorite was the account of Samson and Delilah. Being afflicted with rheumatism so that he could not sleep a great deal of the time, he spent much of his time in singing his songs. Of course the tunes were also original with him. They were very much like the chanting tone used by Quaker preachers three-quarters of a century ago. He has been dead something over 63 years. I still remember the similarity though but a child at the time. I remember that I went to the house to see him for the last time. The impression of seeing his dead face was deep and lasting. I remember that while living Benjamin Bond wore drab clothes cut in Quaker fashion of a hundred years ago; perhaps they were not quite the Quaker garb that was most common at the time of my recollection of him. The coat and vest were longer and the hat, which was also drab in color, was softer, broader brimmed and turned up at the sides as we see the hat in the picture of Nathan Hunt. He was smooth shaved, as were all the Friends at that time, both old and young. As I remember him he was bald with some gray hair remaining about his temples and the base of his head. His face was rounder and fuller than your grandfather's (Edward Bond) as I remember him. He was good-natured and we little children liked him and called him 'Grandfather Bond' whenever we spoke of him, and it so turned out that I married his granddaughter.

"Wm. P. Hastings."

"March, 1903."

The children of Benjamin and Mary Bond were:

66. I. Edward, b. March 8, 1800.
67. II. Jonathan W., b. Oct. 15, 1801.
68. III. Jedediah, b. Aug. 19, 1804.
69. IV. Tabitha (Newby), b. May 3, 1808.
70. V. Nathan Hunt Bond, b. Dec. 30, 1813.

11. JOHN BOND (Edward-Joseph), son of Edward and Ann Bond, of Guilford County, N. C., was born June 15, 1769; married Dec. 8, 1791: Mary Huff, born Sept. 3, 1767, daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth (Christie) Huff. To this union was born ten children. She died March 1, 1809, in Stokes, now Yadkin County, N. C. He died Dec. 5, 1860, in Henry County, Ind., to which place he had arrived only a few weeks before his decease. He resided in Surry County and when Yadkin County was organized and cut off from Surry it left him in Yadkin County. He was a member of Deep Creek Monthly Meeting and was a minister of some note. He twice traveled on horseback to Indiana on religious visits among the Friends.

His second wife, to whom he was married about 1813, was Rachel Hobson, widow of Stephen Hobson, and daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Vestal.

Under date of November 19th, 1902, Hannah W. Osborn (at that time aged nearly 86 years), of Centre, N. C., wrote as follows:

"When I first became familiar with the transactions of North Carolina Yearly Meeting (of Friends or Quakers) about seventy-five years ago, John Bond was an active member in the meeting. He was a minister and belonged to Deep Creek Mo. Mtg. in Surry County. I never knew the name of his wife, who was mother of his children, nor the name of any of his children, except one daughter, Anna. When her father was 82 years old she married John Hutchens, leaving her father alone, but it seems even at that ripe age he did not find it good to be alone, so married Anna Macy, daughter of John and Anna Macy, a worthy maiden of about 60, who was in need of a home and employment, and withal, fitted to be the household companion of such a man, installed her mistress of his sufficiently supplied house while he continued to cultivate his farm with his own hands. After living on some 10, 12 or more years, I regret I can't call to mind just how many, they disposed of their farm and moved to Indiana . . . to the sore regret of his friends. For he had continued so vigorous that they had hoped to see him live out his 100 years."

12. WILLIAM BOND (Edward-Joseph), born Nov. 16, 1771, in Guilford County, N. C.; married Dec. 13, 1792: Charlotte Hough, born Nov. 11, 1773, daughter of William and Mary Hough. They resided in North Carolina until 1807, when they moved to Wayne County, Indiana Territory, and about 1810 moved to Henry County and a few years later settled in Laporte County, Ind., where the city of Laporte now is. He died Sept. 19, 1838; she died Dec. 25, 1852. Deep River, N. C., Mo. C., Jan. 24, 1774; married May 17, 1795: Anna Huff, born Feb. 18, 1777, daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth (Christie) Huff. To this union was born eleven children. She died Sept. 22, 1839; he died March 14, 1856; both in Wayne County, Ind. After their marriage they settled in what is now Yadkin County, N. C., then Surry County. They moved to Indiana Territory in 1811, arriving at his father's in Wayne County on Nov. 5 of that year. They entered land where the town of Webster now is, where they lived the rest of their days. They built a cabin into which they moved the day before Christmas. The cabin was soon abandoned and a comfortable house entered. Then some years later they built a substantial frame house, which to this day, after something like eighty years' service, is a well preserved residence and looks very much like it did a half century ago except for some minor changes and the replacing of the plaster and pebble outside with weather-boarding. The land for the Friends' meeting house and graveyard was taken from his farm as well as the greater part of the town of Webster. After the division of Friends in 1828 into two societies, viz.: Orthodox and Hicksites, he and several of his children were affiliated with the Hicksite branch of Friends. Children:

C., Sept. 19, 1776; married June, 1803: Abram Bunker, born Aug. 1, 1768, son of Reuben and Judith (Macy) Bunker; a native of Nantucket Island, Mass. This Reuben Bunker was son of Reuben and Judith (Chase) Bunker. Judith Macy, above mentioned was the daughter of John and Eunice (Coleman) Macy, and the later John Macy was the son of John and Judith (Worth) Macy, also natives of Nantucket Island, Mass. I am not informed as to the particular place in North Carolina where Abram and Anna (Bond) Bunker resided from the time of their marriage until they moved to Indiana Territory, where they arrived March 1, 1815, with their then five children. They settled a few miles north of Richmond, near where her father then resided. Children:

15. JESSE BOND (Edward-Joseph), born Feb. 24, 1779, in Guilford County, N. C.; married 1802: Phebe Commons, born 1779, daughter of Robert and Ruth (Hayes) Commons. She died June 30, 1845; he passed away in his 84th year Nov. 4, 1862. He began preaching when quite young and became an eminent minister among Friends. In July, 1802, he removed his membership from Deep River Monthly Meeting in Guilford County, to Mount Pleasant Monthly Meeting in Grayson County, Va. In 1807 he emigrated to Indiana and became one of the early pioneers in Indiana Territory. He and his brother William were the first of the Bond family to settle in Wayne County, Indiana; others soon followed. He first settled on the farm where Earlham College now is, but in a few years moved on a farm a mile south of Greensfork. When White Water Monthly Meeting was established at Richmond in 1815 he was the first recorded minister. His son, William C. Bond, under date of July 20, 1885, wrote as follows about his parents, Jesse and Phebe Bond:

"They came to Wayne County, Indiana, in 1807; settled on where now is Earlham College. They raised eleven children, all married and had families before the parents died, and all living on good farms in Indiana. I, William, went a few days ago to the old farm at Earlham, the place of my birth, drank at the spring; saw the relics of the old chimney, and was shown one of the old apple trees that Jesse, my father 'hilled' on a drag from Ludlow's nursery, Cincinnati, about 1807, has some apples on it, another was cut down last spring, the stump about two feet across.

"Richmond had but three houses. Saulsbury was the county seat. I have heard Jesse Bond tell of he and John Charles taking warm blankets and hot bricks to the jail at Saulsbury to keep good young men from freezing, put in for muster fines in them days."

Quakers, being conscientious against war, would not muster and would suffer themselves to be put in jail rather than pay the fine that was imposed upon those who did not muster, as required by law.

16. JOSHUA BOND (Edward-Joseph), son and eighth child of Edward and Ann (Mills) Bond, was born in Guilford County, N. C., Nov. 23, 1781; married Oct. 10, 1805, in Grayson County, Va.: Ruth Coffin, born 1781, daughter of Libini and Hephzibah (Starbuck) Coffin, and Libini Coffin was the son of William and Priscilla (Paddock) Coffin, and William Coffin was the son of William, Sr. Priscilla Paddock was daughter of Nathaniel and Ann Paddock. This is as far as the lineage has been obtained. After his marriage Joshua Bond lived a few years in Grayson County, Va., where he built a saw mill, which he operated in addition to his farming. In 1811 he moved to Indiana, first settling near Middleboro, in Wayne County. As I have in my possession a copy of a biography written by himself I will here let him tell the story of his life. He left quite a number of manuscripts on various subjects; some about the division and dissensions among the Society of Friends, one about the hardships and afflictions that he and his family had passed through. I will only here publish the one paper, his history, which I try to reproduce in his own language. His first wife, who was the mother of his children, died Nov. 23, 1847. His second wife was Mary Walton, widow of his cousin, Abraham Walton. Her maiden name was Allison; she died April 17, 1877. Joshua Bond died Sept. 11, 1876, aged nearly 95 years.

JOSHUA BOND'S HISTORY WRITTEN BY HIMSELF.

I desire to expres something of what I have passed through I was brought up to farming but my father had a saw mill bilt when I was about sixteen. and I helped him tend the mill for sevrel years and we fixt up a cotton picking mechene at the mill the first that was nigh so there I was right in to publick business I got well larnt to tend the saw, and picking mechene and to measure boards so when I left my parents I came over the blue ridge mountains into new Virginia and perchased a mill seat on a stream called little reediland right in the wild woods a mild or more from a hous and about ninety miles from my fathers and I went onto my land to work in the spring of 1805, and I hiard a yong man by the month to work with me. though some times I worked a lone one time I worked a week without speaking with any body and I worked on and bilt me a cabin and a saw mill—and I found a yong women not fur off that needed a home her parents were broken up her name was Ruth Coffin so I married her the 6th day of the 10th month 1805 at friends meeting cald mountpleasant—which was about six miles from where I lived but friends soon a greed that there might be meeting held at my hous so there was a few friends met at my hous till we bilt a hous to meet at—so we lived there till we had three children—and I had bilt a grist mill nigh my saw mill and cleared a small plantation—and my parents came to my hous a moving to indiana territory in the year 1810 so I concluded to leave new virginia and cum to Indiana territory so I fixt and came the fall of 1811 and was five weeks on the road and it rained o good dale of the time—”

“we got to fathers on the middle fork of white watter the fifth day of the 11 month 1811 and I soon bilt me a cabin clost by fathers and went to hewing houslogs for some of the neighbors but it want long till a neighbor hired me to bild him a saw mill on the middle fork of white watter a bout a half mild from my hous, and it want long till he hired me to help him bild a fulling mill the first I suppose in the territory of Indiana and I was the head workman in bilding sevrel saw mills a bout the settlement of white watter and I bilt a fulling mill over in the Ohio state near new paris and I was head workman in starting the first carding mechene in indiana that I know of and I was head workman in bilding a fulling mill on greens fork near Washington and a nother away out west of mill ford—and I pershed a mill seat clost too my hous and bilt the first oil mill that I know of in the state of Indiana I made the oil that was used on that big brick meeting house at whitewater—

“and I bilt me a grist mill and fulling mill and fixt in a carding mechene and had the making of oil grinding carding and fulling carried on for sevrel years. and I helped bild the brick meeting house at goshen—and we had a great dale of company for sevrel years and some of my family had become weakly we thought it best to sell and move out near winchester we lived at white watter twentyone year—I bought a sawmill near Winchester randolf county that was out ov repair and I repaired it and dun a good dale of sawing but I soon parted with it—I bought a plantation also there joining the town on the north side of winchester that was out of repair and I repaired it and I had the first thrashing meshene bilt that I knew of while I lived their. I staid on that plantation by winchester a bout three years—and friends had there meetings at my hous a good dale of the time—then i perched land in the wilderness of Jay county indiana where I now live and took sum hired hands and a wagon load of pervision and bedding and tools to work with and cum into Jay county in the fall ov 1835 to prepare bildings to move too we crost the massasinaway at the boat yards by words then went on through the wilderness and crost butternut then crost the sallimony up a buve the mouth of butternut so came down on the north side till we came to William swallers who had cum a little before from his hous we had to cut our road a bout one mild to my land from near the massasinaway we had a narrow crukid road turning round big logs and running over little ones and through the bushes and over them also when we got onto my land we stopped the wagon and went to looking for a place to bild a house and a place to git watter while we bilt.

"So we dug for water at the edge of a masha looking place and got watter in a bout four feet and it raised and run out and has run watter for us everesence so we went to work and put up a small cabin to camp in while we would hew logs and bild a hous we got the logs hued and hold together and the foundation laid all reddy for raising and the weather coald and we went home nigh to winchester and brought out my hogs to git fat on hickery nuts, and I was a sleding out property on the snow in the winter and moved my famoly from near winchester the first of the third month 1836 and we ware two days a coming the way was narrow and cruked and the second day it snoad very much and loaded the bushes down so it was difficult gitting a long we crost the sallimony at william Bunches I went back the next day for a nother load, and sum hands came out from winchester to help us raise our hous so we got our hous up and got into it right quick then went to clearing ground for corn and to plant a orchard when we got the ground reddy we marked it of for planting our corn I planted my apple seed and pear seed then I cracked my peach stones and planted them in a bout every fifth row and a bout every fifth hill in the row and planted the rest of the ground in corn my peach trees came up most as soon as the corn so the ware tended with the corn so the peach trees groad famous and had peaches on them the third summer but the first crop of corn got blood down in a time that a most spilt the corn so I had to go in near winches-ter the next winter for corn. and in the spring had to go into whitewater a bout six miles north of Richmond for corn I left wheat groing on that plantation near winchester so when harvest came we had wheat and by the next spring we had land cleared so that I soad a little spring wheat and it was good I had to let my horses and cattle and sheep all run to the woods the horses and cattle I often found from one to two miles from home and sum times near twice that far I lost three hors beasts the three I suppose was worth one hundred and fifty dollars for I paid sixty dollars for one of them a little before and the other two I raised and the cattle I lost I suppose was worth over one hundred dollars. and we had to bring the sheep up every evening and pen them close to the house to keep the wolves from getting them, but there was fifteen of the sheep died the first summer so I had-but five left the did well, we killed a number of red-bellied snakes and the first summer after that the want so plenty their backs were plack their shape was a bout like the black viper them snakes was said to be very pisen and the first summer that I lived in these woods in Jay county the first meeting of friends was held at my house onst a week for a considerable time but when there got to be a number of families moved in then we bilt a house to meet at and the first election that I remember being inpen (in Penn) township was held in my mill house I had bilt a horse mill to grind grain for my neighbors and myself I had a pair of hand mill stones brought out to Jay before I moved my family into Jay that my neighbors and I ground with till I bilt a horse mill I have ground a number of grists for the poor and afflicted without any pay and I have tended to the mill all night sum times to benefit the publick now the reader may notice that I have been endeavoring to benifit the publick ever cence I was a man it is a great and good thing to be truthful a doing our duties to benifit the Soul and boddy of our selves and our fellow beings the first man that died in this settlement was Aaron Rigby and I had the making of his coffin and I helped to bilt the first bridge over the salimony that I knew of so I was a trying to do sum good in the world and not do any harm I moved my thrashing mechene to where I now live (and there was some loads of wheat brought in the sheef and taken away in flour) and have it in use yit and the grinding mill is yit in use—this 3 day of the 4 mo 1862”

59. JOSEPH BOND (John-Joseph), second child and eldest son of John and Jane (Beeson) Bond, was born Feb. 29, 1780, in Guilford County, N. C. His parents being Friends or Quakers he had a birthright membership in that society. In the year 1795, when he was 15 years of age, a certificate of membership from Center Monthly Meeting of Friends of Guilford County, N. C., to New Hope Monthly Meeting of Green County, Tenn., was granted to Joseph Bond and his four brothers, Benjamin, Joel, Isaac and William. It is supposed that his father moved at that time from North Carolina to Tennessee, taking his children and moving their membership in the meeting, the father not being a member at the time. When in 1797 Lost Creek Monthly Meeting was established he and his brothers became members of that meeting, located in Jefferson County, Tenn. At the age of 17 years he married out of the meeting, contrary to the rules of the society, and thereby lost his membership. The records of Lost Creek Monthly Meeting, page 16, dated Nov. 18, 1797, read as follows:

"The preparative meeting complains of Joseph Bond for accomplishing his marriage contrary to the good order used among Friends. Also hath moved quite from among Friends, directly after he was married. This meeting therefore disowns him from being a member of our society until he comes to a sight and sence of his misconduct and condemns the same to the satisfaction of Friends, which that he may is desired on his behalf."

It does not appear of record that he ever came back to apologize. From this time on no traces of him could be found in the records of the monthly meeting. During the interval of twenty years from 1884 to 1905 I wrote perhaps several hundred letters in which inquiry was made for the descendants of this Joseph Bond or those of his brothers. Finally locating many of them in Missouri, some in Illinois and others in Kentucky. From these I learned that soon after his marriage Joseph Bond and his father-in-law settled in Wayne County, Kentucky, near the Cumberland River. Here is where he reared his family and here his remains were buried. He died Feb., 1853. We learn from his grandchildren that he, Joseph Bond, married (1797) Abigail Hinds. She died about 1841. She was the daughter of Joseph (?) Hinds, whose wife was a Ludlow. The children of Joseph and Abigail Bond were:

- 265. I. Joel, b. Aug. 13, 1798.
- 266. II. Sarah, b. Dec. 12, 1799.
- 267. III. John.
- 268. IV. Jane, b. Sept. 7, 1803.
- 269. V. Samuel.
- 270. VI. Malinda.

60. BENJAMIN BOND (John-Joseph), born Oct. 19, 1781, in Guilford County, N. C.; born a Quaker; his membership in Center Monthly Meeting in North Carolina was changed in 1795 to New Hope Monthly Meeting in Green County, Tenn., and two years later to Lost Creek Monthly Meeting in Jefferson County, Tenn. The minutes of this last meeting says of Benjamin Bond, under date of Feb. 2, 1801:

"Grassy Valley preparative meeting (located a few miles N. E. of Knoxville) complains of Benjamin Bond for attending a marriage consummated contrary to discipline and dancing, and using bad language."

This was continued through the meetings held in March, April and May, when he was disowned from being a member. I have not been successful in learning the further history of this Benjamin Bond, except that he married and was the father of a family and lived in Tennessee at least a few years. He had sons:

276. I. James (?).

277. II. Benjamin, Jr. (?).

278. III. William, and others whose names I have not learned.

William, it is said, was called "Whig Billy Bond" and that he married his first cousin, Clara, daughter of Isaac Bond. I have been unable to obtain further definite knowledge of his family or their present place of abode.

This Joseph Hinds being a brother to Abigail Hinds, who previous to this had married Joseph Bond, a brother to Joel. About the year 1835 he moved from Kentucky to Miller County, Mo. However, he lived a year or two in Breckenridge County, Ky., before going to Missouri. He died in Miller County, Mo., Feb. 1, 1856. His residence was west of Spring Garden. It has been said of him that he did not own slaves, as did some of his brothers. So far as learned the children's names were as follows:

them. He later moved to Wayne County, Ky., where he married Anna Holmes. About 1845 he moved from Kentucky to near Hickory Hill, Cole County, Mo. He served as a soldier, so it is said, during the war of 1812, and when a minor he was bound out to Joseph Hinds. He died in Cole County, Mo., Aug. 27, 1856. He had a plantation and was the possessor of slaves. His children were:

64. WILLIAM BOND (John-Joseph), son of John and Jane (Beeson) Bond, was born in Guilford County, N. C., Dec. 5, 1789; died in Cole County, Mo., Oct. 11, 1875. Moved from North Carolina to Jefferson County, Tenn., in 1795, and a few years later settled in Wayne County, Ky., where he married Charity Hinds, born Aug. 9, 1789, daughter of Joseph and Betsy Hinds. She died Jan. 30, 1866, in Cole County, Mo., to which place they moved about the year 1836, and settled near Hickory Hill. He was a soldier in the war of 1812. John came over to Philadelphia in 1721, and married, 1724-5, Sarah Cadwallader, and settled within the limits of Byberry Monthly Meeting of Friends. He died in 1748.
